

ARYAN PRISON DEBATE From Cells to Suburbs | COLLEGE & PRIVATE School Grades | 2010 TOP DENTISTS Voted on by their Peers | CULINARY MASTERS Competing for Top Chef

Fort Worth, Texas

The City's Magazine

Dinner is Served

The Area's Top 20 New Restaurants

ONE CITY ONLY.
SUNDAY, MAY 16

Habanero's Fresh Mex

6407 S. Cooper St., Ste. 165, Arlington, 817.468.2876

Habanero's Fresh Mex prepares Mexican food and salsas made with a unique combination of spices found on the Baja Peninsula. The signature dish at Habanero's is the beer-battered tilapia, tacos served with a savings of lime and fresh guacamole. The margaritas aren't bad either. Flavorful meats and fresh salsas at this Arlington location keep this place pretty lively all week long. $-$$ place that are vital to guests first entering the restaurant. While it's most famous for its locally sourced, organic and fresh ingredients, Cooper's has mastered the typical restaurant offerings including a selection of delicious cocktails. Customers can enjoy their selections in the 20,000 square-foot dining area or walk to the patio that has a view of the Fort Worth skyline. **$-$$

Ellerbe's Fine Foods

525 St. Margus St. Fort Worth, 817.928.2663

Ellerbe's Fine Foods concentrates on a farm-to-table concept to be constantly evolving seasonal menus. In-season and local food is featured in this upscale market that opened in this recent addition to Magnolia Avenue. The restaurant was converted from a 1950s gas station into what now looks like a home offering patisserie, locally sourced items with white linens and table coverings. Service is consistently attentive and professional. In addition to what the restaurant has to offer, Ellerbe's marketplace makes available an assortment of wine, cheese, gift items and pet products. **$$$

Fat Daddy's Burger House

810 W. Southlake Blvd., Southlake, 817.414.1010

This quick-service restaurant caters to the entire family with a fun, casual environment and product created from scratch. All of Fat Daddy's burgers and sides are made from local ingredients, mostly in certified farm fresh, beef in addition to daily specials are addressed from a local bakery. Among the unique items available are the Buffalo Chicken Burrito and the Signature Hamburger. Good thing Fat Daddy's also makes some of the best shakes and milkshakes in the area. **$

Lava 10

431 E. State Highway 114, Coppell, 972.299.2282

This upscale eatery serves a range of Malibu cuisine and is the product of owner The Palms Tap. Tap's other successful restaurants include Loco Ahiito Grill and Suki Suki. The Asian Fusion cuisine at Lava 10 combines the tastes of Southeast Asia with influences from Okinawa.

Lava 10